MEETING DATES FOR 2007 -

July 30, Sept 24, Oct 22, Nov 26.

LENDING LIBRARY -

If you need a horological book or video contact Doug Fowler at: dfowler@nsidc.org or 303 702-5178. To access our inventory of books and tapes go to the chapter web site at: http://members.tripod.com/nawcc\_chapter21 and click on the link on the left hand side.

PROGRAM THIS MONTH -

This month's program examines some of the manufacturing myths surrounding the production of early America clock makers and where they obtained clock movement parts. Economic conditions are discussed along with references to two clock makers diaries. A connection between Birmingham and Prescott, England, and early clockmakers is established.

SHOW & TELL -

Bring your horological item with a myth or an item that starts with the letter "M".

ROCKY MOUNTAIN REGIONAL AUGUST 3RD & 4TH, 2007

Attached are regional documents for this years regional. This should be a very good event with the expanded auction and the mart open to the public on Saturday August 4th.

Reserve a table now! Don't forget about the clock and watch auction Friday evening. Register early and save.

Contact Dave Fornof or Joel Cox for more information. Dave can be reached at (303) 833-3462 or stitchnthyme@msn.com and Joel at (970) 221-1612 or coxjoeltime@aol.com. The live auction is Friday evening. Contact Pat McGuire @ realtorpmm@aol.com or (303) 425-4599 for more information.

Volunteers are needed: Rocky Mountain Regional. Aug 3rd and 4th 2007. We will need volunteers for security, registration, and to help setup the Mart room. Ideally we need a person to "chair" each of these responsibilities and organize a team to get the job done.

If you have some time and want to get involved please feel free to contact Dave Fornof or Joel Cox.
