

You've got a great business idea, but you need help finding capital to get your new business going. Where do you turn? Business Polish has teamed up with the City Of Glendale's Public Library to develop this listing of sources small business owners will find available at the library. It is likely small business owners in any city will also find these books available for check-out in their local libraries. The document is not copyrighted, but should give credit to both Glendale Public Library and Business Polish when reproduced.
