The Three Components

The teaching philosophy of Enota Glace, LLC has three components:

MOTIVATION spiritual

The Divine Spark within is the engine which drives us to achieve and know the greatness in all.

EDUCATION mental

To teach, learn and share knowledge.

APPLICATION physical

Integrate knowledge led by wisdom to heighten receptivity.

The Land

Enota Glace, LLC is a place of magic and beauty, nestled on a mountain-side thirteen and one-half miles from White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia. The atmosphere is filled with Grace and wonder – a perfect setting for introspection and self-development.

Currently there is a classroom, a picnic area, hiking trails, a playground, a speaker pavilion and a place for ceremony.

The miniature lighthouse is the inspiration for our centre's logo. It represents the intention with which the centre is being created: to assist all who would follow their own Light in an energy of humility and Grace.

Vision

As participants in the co-creation/evolution of Enota Glace, LLC, we believe that all Units of Consciousness are part of a Greater Force with a definite purpose for Being. We offer a Spiritual Retreat Centre where people may choose to learn about themselves, their relationship to each other, the world, the Universe and the Greater Whole of Existence/The All/Great Is/God.

Mission

Providing many levels of experience: incorporating research and development, teaching by example through Discipline, Faith, Trust, Compassion, Forgiveness, Joy, Humility, Discernment/Detachment and remembering that we are all students first.

"Through the Wisdom of Grace, assisting humankind's evolutionary awakening process with Motivation, Education, and Application".
