

State of Georgia } do the County
Montgomery County } of Ga., amen.

I, Wm. Adams of said State and County, being of advanced age, but of sound and disposing mind and memory. Knowing that I must shortly depart this life, deem it right and proper both as respects my family and myself, that I should make a disposition of the property with which a kind Providence has blessed me: I do therefore make this my last will and testament hereby repealing and annulling all others by me heretofore made.

First: I desire and direct that my body be buried in a decent and Christian like manner suitable to my circumstances and condition in life - my soul, I trust shall return to rest with God who gave it, as I hope for salvation through the merits and of the blessed Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

me properly with which a kind Providence has blessed me:
revoking and annulling all others by me heretofore made.

and Christian like manner
and savior Jesus Christ.

Secondly: I desire and direct that all my just debts be paid without delay by my executors hereinafter named and mentioned.

Thirdly: I desire and direct that the present crop of cotton that shall be raised on my plant in connection with stock & cattle kept at the place where Joseph Adams now lives, be sold and that out of the sales of the same, Thomas B. Adams is to have three hundred dollars in money.

I desire then, that my Executors do purchase six tomb stones and an iron fence to put around the grave yard out of the sales of the above mentioned crop of cotton and stock of cattle.

Fourthly: I desire and direct that if there is anything left after Thomas B. Adams gets three hundred dollars and the tomb stones and iron fence are purchased, that it be equally divided between Margaret M. Leed, Emma Riggs and Thomas B. Callahan Adams.

Fifthly: - I hereby constitute and appoint my son George W. Adams executor of this my last will and testament.
Ohio April 21st 1873.
