Gold Wing Road Riders Association (GWRRA) Region I WY Chapter B, Cheyenne WY

July 2010

DAVE'S DISCOURSE

David and Dawna Hill
Chapter Directors

Hey Everybody

Well another month has come and gone. For the Chapter things are starting to slow down just a little. We had a good District Rally in Rock Springs if you were unable to attend. Rick Vandersloot and his staff did a great job. For Bob & Mary, Ron & Helen, and Joe Thursday riding over was not so great due to wind and temperature, great job however. For those going to Wing Ding see ya there and for those staying home and going to Super Days have a great time. Coming up in July we have the picnic at Martin Luther King Park for the Boys and Girls Club @ 4 PM and then July 31 Natural Bridge. If anything else comes up we will run the phone tree. Till next time.

Ride Safe Ride Often

CHATTIN' WITH CHARLIE

Charlie Caine and
Julie Tennant-Caine
Assistant Chapter Directors
Hi Everyone;

Here's hoping that we are all getting some miles on the bike/trikes and that the weather gods protect us in our travels and show us all fair skies and clear highways. We have had lots of activities this past month with the District Rally in Rock Springs being the most recent. It sounds like, other than a rather testy breeze on the way over, the Rally went off wonderfully and a good time was had by all. Congratulations to the Vandersloot's, Rock Springs GWRRA Directors for pulling off a fine operation.

Keep in mind that we are still in the busy part of the riding season so there is plenty to do in July. ON Saturday, the 10th, Howard Segal has put together a run to the Glendo Dam to visit the wetlands Interpretive Trail. It sounds like a lot of fun, so bring your lunch and be at the Albertson's on Yellowstone, fully fueled and ready to take off at 11 am. ON Friday, the 16th we have our annual picnic with the Boys and Girls Club at 4 PM at the Martin Luther King Park here in Cheyenne. Then at the end of the month (July 31 / Aug. 1st) is our annual Member Appreciation Campout at Natural Bridge State Park, just west of Douglas, WY. This trip is always a hoot. Bring your tent, camping gear or RV and come on up to join the party. Even if you can't spend the night, come up for the day and share some good times. Everyone have a great July and we'll see you down the road.

the ridered guy

Hi Guys & Gals. Well we are into summer and the riding is good. We just got back from Rock Springs and the district rally. Other than fighting a tremendous headwind all the way from Cheyenne we had a really great time. A special thanks goes out to Rick & Joyce and their entire group for putting on a great rally. We didn't have any ERC classes or seminars, but maybe next year.

Speaking of riding in the wind, let's talk a little about the hazards we face. First, two wheels can really be touchy. Just ask Joe. Thankfully he had new tires and really good traction. When you are getting pushed all over the road you need to allow more room between bikes. Take breaks and don't over extend yourself. Trust me you will have tired arms and hands not to mention a sore neck and shoulders.

Well we will be in Des Moines by the time you read this so ride Safe and ride Often.

Take care. Bob

MONTHLY FUNNIES

Women's Best Friend

A real man is a woman's best friend. He will never stand her up and never let her down. He will reassure her when she feels insecure and comfort her after a bad day.

He will inspire her to do things she never thought she could do; to live without fear and forget regret. He will enable her to express her deepest emotions and give in to her most intimate desires. He will make sure she always feels as though she's the most beautiful woman in the room and will enable her to be the most confident, sexy, seductive, and invincible.

No wait... sorry... I'm thinking of wine. Never mind.

After being married for 44 years, I took a careful look at my wife one day and said: "Darling, 44 years ago we had a cheap apartment, a cheap car, slept on a sofa bed and watched a 10-inch black and white TV, but I got to sleep every night with a hot 25-year-old girl.

Now I have a $500,000.00 home, a $45,000.00 car, nice big bed and plasma screen TV but I'm sleeping with a 65-year-old woman. It seems to me that you're not holding up your side of things."

My wife is a very reasonable woman. She told me to go out and find a hot 25-year-old girl, and she would make sure that I would once again be living in a cheap apartment, driving a cheap car, sleeping on a sofa bed and watching a 10-inch black and white TV.

Aren't older women great? They really know how to solve your mid-life crisis.

You are in the middle of some kind of project around the house-mowing the lawn, putting in a new fence, painting the living room, or whatever. You are hot and sweaty, covered in dirt or paint. You have your old work clothes on.

You know the outfit - shorts with the hole in the crotch, old T-shirt with a stain from who knows what, and an old pair of tennis shoes. Right in the middle of this great home improvement project you realize you need to run to Home Depot to get something to help complete the job.

Depending on your age you might do the following:

In your 20's:

Stop what you are doing. Shave, take a shower, blow dry your hair, brush your teeth, floss, and put on clean clothes. Check yourself in the mirror and flex. Add a dab of your favorite cologne because you never know, you just might meet some hot chick while standing in the checkout lane. And you went to school with the pretty girl running the register.

In your 30's:

Stop what you are doing, put on clean shorts and shirt. Change shoes. You married the hot chick so no need for much else. Wash your hands and comb your hair. Check yourself in the mirror. Still got it. Add a shot of your favorite cologne to cover the smell. The cute girl running the register is the kid sister to someone you went to school with.

In your 40's:

Stop what you are doing. Put on a sweatshirt that is long enough to cover the hole in the crotch of your shorts. Put on different shoes and a hat. Wash your hands. Your bottle of Brute Cologne is almost empty so you don't want to waste any of it on a trip to Home Depot. Check yourself in the mirror and do more sucking in than flexing. The spicy young thing running the register is your daughter's age and you feel weird thinking she is spicy.

In your 50's:

Stop what you are doing. Put a hat on, wipe the dirt off your hands onto your shirt. Change shoes because you don't want to get dog doo-doo in your new sports car. Check yourself in the mirror and you swear not to wear that shirt anymore because it makes you look fat. The Cutie running the register smiles when she sees you coming and you think you still have it. Then you remember the hat you have on is from Buddy's Bait & Beer Bar and it says, 'I Got Worms.'

In your 60's:

Stop what you are doing. No need for a hat anymore. Hose the dog doo-doo off your shoes. The mirror was shattered when you were in your 50's. You hope you have underwear on so nothing hangs out the hole in your pants. The girl running the register may be cute, but you don't have your glasses on so you are not sure.

In your 70's:

Stop what you are doing. Wait to go to Home Depot until the drug store has your prescriptions ready, too. Don't even notice the dog doo-doo on your shoes. The young thing at the register smiles at you because you remind her of her grandfather.

In your 80's:

Stop what you are doing. Start again. Then stop again. Now you remember you needed to go to Home Depot. Go to Wal-Mart instead and wander around trying to think what it is you are looking for. Fart out loud and you think someone called out your name. You went to school with the old lady who greeted you at the front door.

In your 90's & beyond:

What's a home deep hoe? Something for my garden? Where am I? Who am I? Why am I reading this? Did I send it? Did you? Who farted?

VERY INTERESTING STUFF

In the 1400's a law was set forth in England that a man was allowed to beat his wife with a stick no thicker than his thumb. Hence we have 'the rule of thumb'.

Many years ago in Scotland, a new game was invented. It was ruled 'Gentlemen Only...Ladies Forbidden'.. and thus the word GOLF entered the English language.

The first couple to be shown in bed together on prime time TV were Fred and Wilma Flintstone.

Every day more money is printed for Monopoly than by the U.S .Treasury.

Men can read smaller print than women can; women can hear better.

Coca-Cola was originally green.

It is impossible to lick your elbow.

The State with the highest percentage of people who walk to work: Alaska.

The percentage of Africa that is wilderness: 28% (now get this...) the percentage of North America that is wilderness: 38%.

The cost of raising a medium-size dog to the age of eleven: $16,400.

The average number of people airborne over the US. in any given hour: 61,000.

Intelligent people have more zinc and copper in their hair.

The first novel ever written on a typewriter: Tom Sawyer.

The San Francisco Cable cars are the only mobile National Monuments.

Each king in a deck of playing cards represents a great king from history: Spades - King David, Hearts - Charlemagne, Clubs - Alexander, the Great and Diamonds - Julius Caesar.

Only two people signed the Declaration of Independence on July 4th, John Hancock and Charles Thomson. Most of the rest signed on August 2, but the last signature wasn't added until 5 years later.

In Shakespeare's time, mattresses were secured on bed frames by ropes. When you pulled on the ropes the mattress tightened, making the bed firmer to sleep on. Hence the phrase.....'goodnight, sleep tight.'

It was the accepted practice in Babylon 4,000 years ago that for a month after the wedding, the bride's father would supply his son-in-law with all the mead he could drink. Mead is a honey beer and because their calendar was lunar based, this period was called the honey month, hence the honeymoon.
