November 2010

DAVE'S DISCOURSE

David and Dawna Hill
Chapter Directors

Hey Everybody

Well I hear through the grapevine we had a good dinner run to Fort Collins, sorry I couldn't make it. Thanks to those who set it up and of course those who attended.

Remember Thanksgiving Dinner at the Country Buffet on the 20th at 6 PM. No dinner run this month due to this.

Mileage, mileage, mileage by the time you read this hopefully we will have it all turned in but just in case please no later than meeting time the 13th. No miles are too small so let's turn them in. For those that have done this before odometer readings are all I need and for those that are new to it give me a call and I'll explain it to you.

Coming up in December we have our annual Ornament Exchange / Christmas Dinner so bring a side dish and come out and enjoy.

Once again Dawna and I would like to say thank you for your thoughts and prayers they really work.

Ride safe Ride often

Dave & Dawna

CHATTIN' WITH CHARLIE

Charlie Caine and
Julie Tennant-Caine
Assistant Chapter Directors
Howdy Everyone!!

Howdy everyone!!

Isn't it amazing, we actually are having fall in Wyoming this year? We hope many of you have been able to take advantage of this beautiful weather and get some riding time in.

Though this has been a difficult time for our Chapter, there are many things for which we can also be thankful this year. Julie and I are thankful for each other, our family, and our friends and especially thankful for our Goldwing family. It has been truly amazing to watch everyone come together in support of members who need us right now!

The Chapter calendar is winding down as the year also winds down. Remember our Thanksgiving feast on the 20th at Country Buffet, and the ornament exchange at the Community House December 18th. We hope to see lots of folks at these events (as long as my work schedule doesn't interfere with my plans).

Remember to get mileage turned into Dave so we can get the trophy back to Chapter B!

See you down the road...

Charlie

the ridered guy

Hi Guys & Gals.

Well it's just about the end of riding season here in the west. I know we have some "die-hards" that will ride much further into the winter so be real careful if you do. It won't be long before we'll see Joe and the gang out plowing the white stuff and putting down sand. If you ride early in the mornings, watch out for frost, especially in shaded areas. It doesn't take much to upset the old apple cart.

By the time you read this we will have already been to Casper for the Fall Planning Meeting. If I get any new information while we're there I let everyone know at our chapter meeting the 13th of November. Hopefully we can get a couple of things ironed out.

Also, it's time to start thinking about who needs to take a "CPR/First Aid" class the first of the year. I will try to set up something like last year if we have enough participation. We can only get 12 people in a class at one time. Chapter members will get priority. We will probably require pre-payment to eliminate "No-Shows". Think about it. Well that's about it for this month.

Ride Safe and Ride Often. Don't forget to give Dave your mileage!!!

Bob

MONTHLY FUNNIES

All too rarely, airline attendants make an effort to make the in-flight "safety lecture" and their other announcements a bit more entertaining. Here are some real examples that have been heard or reported:

1. On a Continental Flight with a very "senior" flight attendant crew, the pilot said, "Ladies and gentlemen, we've reached cruising altitude and will be turning down the cabin lights. This is for your comfort, and to enhance the appearance of your flight attendants."
2. On landing the stewardess said, "There may be 50 ways to leave your lover, but there are only 4 ways out off this airplane."
3. As the plane landed and was coming to a stop at Washington National, a lone voice came over the loudspeaker: "Whoa, big fella. WHOA!"
4. After a particularly rough landing during thunderstorms in Memphis, a flight attendant on a Northwest flight announced, "Please take care when opening the overhead compartments because, after a landing like that, sure as hell everything has shifted."
5. "In the event of a sudden loss of cabin pressure, masks will descend from the ceiling. Stop screaming, grab the mask, and pull it over your face. If you have a small child traveling with you, secure your mask before assisting with theirs. If you are traveling with more than one small child, pick your favorite.

The following 15 Police Comments were taken from actual police car videos around the country. Count down to #1...

#15 "Relax, the handcuffs are tight because they're new. They'll stretch after you wear them a while."

14 "If you take your hands off the car, I'll make your birth certificate a worthless document."

#13 "If you run, you'll only go to jail tired."

#12 "Can you run faster than 1200 feet per second? Because that's the speed of the bullet that'll be chasing you."

#11 "You don't know how fast you were going? I guess that means I can write anything I want to on the ticket, huh?"

#10 "Yes, sir, you can talk to the shift supervisor, but I don't think it will help. Oh, did I mention that I'm the shift supervisor?"

#9 "Warning! You want a warning? O. K., I'm warning you not to do that again or I'll give you another ticket."

#8 "The answer to this last question will determine whether you are drunk or not. Was Mickey Mouse a cat or a dog?"

#7 "Fair? You want me to be fair? Listen, fair is a place where you go to ride on rides, eat cotton

candy and corn dogs and step in monkey poo. "

#6 "Yeah, we have a quota. Two more tickets and my wife gets a toaster oven."

#5 "In God we trust, all others we run through NCIC."

#4 "How big were those 'Just two beers' you say you had?"

#3 "No sir, we don't have quotas anymore. We used to, but now we're allowed to write as many tickets as we can."

#2 "I'm glad to hear that chief (of Police) Hawker is a personal friend of yours. So you know someone who can post your bail."

The envelope please.....AND THE WINNER IS ...
