Want to be a leader in peace making in your school and community?

This intensive weekend training will focus on building participants skills in understanding, educating and acting for nonviolence. Participants will learn about the theory and practice of nonviolence through participatory activities, discussion, multimedia, and small groups.

The weekend offers skills in conflict transformation and nonviolent communication, and a chance to meet and learn with other students working for peace with justice.

For information on this training, and how to register, contact Grace Hanson, LPF youth trainer: lpfyouth@gmail.com 206-720-0313.

"This is a very pro-active, empowering workshop.

Participants leave recognizing the
immensity of violence
and injustice in the world, but activated and inspired for constructive action."
