

Eucharistic Sharing in a World of Need

with

Dr. Samuel Torvend

Professor of Religion at Pacific Lutheran University author of Daily Bread, Holy Meal: Opening the Gifts of Holy Communion and *Luther and the Hungry Poor: Gathered Fragments**

Saturday, November 21, 8:45 AM - 1 PM

With additional training event from 1-2:30 PM

at

St. John United Lutheran Church, 5515 Phinney Ave. N. Seattle

- two presentations by Dr. Torvend:
Jesus and the Hungry Poor and
Luther, the Eucharist and Our Current Need
- small group sharing about our congregations' ministries on behalf of the hungry
- hunger advocacy update
- eucharist and a simple lunch

Following lunch - another great opportunity: Christopher Carpenter, Associate Director of the ELCA World Hunger Program, will introduce and train participants in using the ELCA Hunger Program's new resource Taking Root, a complete curriculum for your congregation, with programming for children and youth, easily adapted for adults and multi generational groups.

Come for the morning, the afternoon, or both events!

These events are FREE but please bring several non-perishable food items and/or cash for local food banks. Our offering will go to the ELCA World Hunger Appeal.

For more information or to register for one or both events, email revcjensen@gmail.com

Co-sponsored by St. John United, NW Washington Synod World Hunger Committee, Lutheran Public Policy Office of Washington State, and Lutheran Peace Fellowship
