Dear Natty Bumppo:

I'm writing you because I have not been able to contact you personally, but I wanted to share with you an encouraging scripture. As the conditions in the world are changing daily, many people wonder if suffering will ever end.

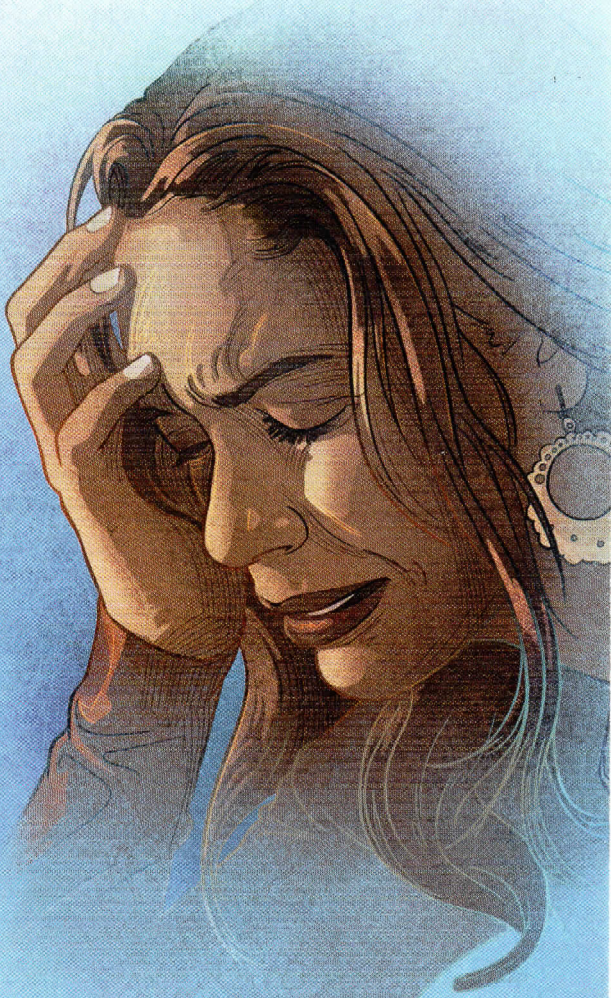

It is my privilege to bring comfort to others by means of the Bible. At Revelation 21:4 it says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." This scripture is particularly reassuring that soon all of the pain experienced will be done away with.

The enclosed tract can bring comfort by pointing you to the Bible, which contains many other beautiful scriptures as well. I also invite you to visit JW.org. Content is available for everyone, regardless of what your beliefs are. You can also take free online Bible lessons without any sign-up or enrollment. I hope that you are able to visit the website and receive encouragement.

Sincerely,

Allen Manshang

Will suffering ever end?

Would you say . . .

- yes?
- no?
- maybe?

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS

“God . . . will wipe all tears from their eyes, and there will be no more death, suffering, crying, or pain.”

—Revelation 21:3, 4, Contemporary English Version

WHAT THAT CAN MEAN FOR YOU

- Assurance that God does not cause our problems.—James 1:13.
- Comfort from knowing that God feels for us when we suffer.—Zechariah 2:8.
- Hope that all suffering will end.—Psalm 37:9-11.

CAN WE REALLY BELIEVE WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS?

Yes, for at least two reasons:

- God hates suffering and injustice. Consider how Jehovah God felt when his people in Bible times were cruelly mistreated. The Bible says that he was distressed because of “those who were treating them abusively.”—Judges 2:18, New World Translation.

God has strong feelings about those who harm others. For example, the Bible says that “hands that shed innocent blood” are detestable to him.—Proverbs 6:16, 17.

- God cares for us as individuals. Not only does each person know “his own plague and his own pain” but so does Jehovah!—2 Chronicles 6:29, 30.

Through his Kingdom, Jehovah will soon end the suffering of each individual. (Matthew 6:9, 10) In the meantime, he tenderly comforts those who sincerely look for him.—Acts 17:27; 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4.

TO THINK ABOUT

Why does God allow suffering?

The Bible answers that question at
ROMANS 5:12 and 2 PETER 3:9.
