

MyWCBA Career Development

Amber Lee Valentin

- Major: Finance
- Minor: Organizational Leadership for Non-profits
- Year: Senior
- UF GPA: 3.58
- Hometown: Tampa, FL
- Favorite UF Course: Advanced Problem Solving Using Computers (CEN 3534)
- Favorite Advisor: Andrew Perrone, Asst Director, Center for Leadership & Service
- Dream Job: Director of Corporate Social Responsibility for a Fortune 500 company
- Internship(s): Rockefeller Philanthropy Advisors - Donor Services Intern;
BB&T - Financial Services Intern; Assistant Program Supervisor for Volunteer Center of North Central Florida
- Student Organizations I'm Actively Involved In:
Center for Leadership and Service - Communications Chair; Florida
Leadership Academy - Advisory Board
- Accomplishment I'm Most Proud Of:
Becoming a first generation college graduate.
- Highlight of UF Career:
Experiencing the victory of 3 National Championships!
- UF Moment You Most Want to Forget:
The exams from Tapley's finance course... yikes!
- Best Advice for Business Majors:
Don't just make money, create value personally and professionally.
- Favorite Hangout: Sitting on my roof with my friends.
- Hobbies: I enjoy traveling, watching football and cartoons, reading, volunteering, drawing, painting, going on adventures, and spending time with my family.
- Last Book You Read that Wasn't Assigned:
Eat. Pray. Love. by Elizabeth Gilbert
- Random Fun Fact About You:
I am a former balloon artist and I have a collection of over 60 rubber ducks!
- Favorite Study Abroad Memory:
Watching the sun set over Florence while sitting on the steps of the oldest church in the city as the choir sang Italian hymns.