Joyce Johnson and her husband Doris Johnson, jointly with the explicit terms and conditions of survivorship, and that in case of either party dying, the survivor is to have vested in the survivor the full fee simple title to said lands herein conveyed Of Brownsville	tween	B.M. Vince	ent, and his wife Stella Vincent
Kentucky, of the first part, and Joyce Johnson and her husband Doris Johnson, jointly with the explicit terms and conditions of survivorship, and that in case of either party dying, the survivor is to have rested in the survivor the full fee simple title to said lands herem conveyed Of Brownsyille
Kentucky, of the first part, and Joyce Johnson and her husband Doris Johnson, jointly with the explicit terms and conditions of survivorship, and that in case of either party dying, the survivor is to have vested in the survivor the full fee simple title to said lands heream conveyed Of Brownsville and State aforesaid, of the second part: WITNESSTH, that the parties of the first part for and in consideration of the sum of Of One Dollar($1.00) and the family ties, kinship and the love and affection existing between the parties, Joyce Johnson being a niece of first parties, being the daughter of Paul Vincent a brother of B.M. Vincent, This deed was prepared by B.M. Vincent, Aug. 21, 1967. Attorney. J.J. J.		, Kentucky, of the first part, and Joyce Johnson and her husband Doris Johnson, jointly with the explicit terms and conditions of survivorship, and that in case of either party dying, the survivor is to have vested in the survivor the full fee simple title to said lands heream conveyed Of Brownsville and State aforesaid, of the second part: WITNESSTIM, that the parties of the first part for and in consideration of the sum of Of One Dollar($1.00) and the family ties, kinship and the love and affection existing between the parties, Joyce Johnson being a nicee of first parties, being the daughter of Paul Vincent a brother of B.M. Vincent, This deed was prepared by B.M. Vincent, Aug. 21, 1967. Attorney. J.
Joyce Johnson and her husband Doris Johnson, jointly with the explicit terms and conditions of survivorship, and that in case of either party dying, the survivor is to have vested in the survivor the full fee simple title to said lands heream conveyed Of Brownsyille		Brownsville	_County ofEdmonsonand State
Joyce Johnson and her husband Doris Johnson, jointly with the explicit terms and conditions of survivorship, and that in case of either party dying, the survivor is to have vested in the survivor the full fee simple title to said lands heream conveyed Of Brownsyille	Kentuc	ky, of the first part, and the survivor the full fee simple title to said lands heream conveyed Of Brownsville		Joyce Johnson and h	er husband Doris Johnson, jointly with the the survivor the full fee simple title to said lands heraun conveyed Of Brownsville		case of either part	v dving, the survivor is to have vested in This deed was prepared by B.M. Vincent, Aug. 21, 1967. Attorney. J.		the survivor the fu	ill fee simple title to said lands herein with second part: the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, a partier, and second part: the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, bargained and sold, and by these presents do bargain, sell and convey unto les and part of the second part, a certain tract or parcel of land, lying in Edmonson County, Kentucky, and described as follows: This being a portion of the John Stice lands and lying on Beaverdam Creek, and bounded as follows: Beginning on a stone on the County Road, near the cattle loading pen, with a hickory marked as corner; thence N 3 W, to a stone in the fighty sion fence near the Jown Syring; thence with the dividion between B.M. Vincent and sen Johnson where the Barb Wir fance is fastened; thence still in a Southern direction with the new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet Gum saying at the County road; thence with County Road of Sweet Gum shing a set on the Barb Wir fance is fastened; thence still in a Southern direction with the new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet Gum saying at the County road; thence with County Road of Sweet Gum saying at the County road; thence of the Barb Wir fance is fastened; thence still in a Southern direction with the new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet Gum saying at the County road; thence withe County Road of Sweet Gum saying at the County road; thence withe County Road of Sweet Gum saying at the County road; thence withe County Road of Sweet Gum saying at the County road; thence withe County Road of Sweet Gum saying at the County road; thence wither County Road of Sweet Gum saying at the County road; thence wither County Road of Sweet Gum saying at the County road; thence wither County Road of Sweet Gum saying at the County road; thence wither County Road of Sweet Gum saying at the County road; then
with second part: the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, a partier, and second part: the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, bargained and sold, and by these presents do bargain, sell and convey unto les and part of the second part, a certain tract or parcel of land, lying in Edmonson County, Kentucky, and described as follows: This being a portion of the John Stice lands and lying on Beaverdam Creek, and bounded as follows: Beginning on a stone on the County Road, near the cattle loading pen, with a hickory marked as corner; thence N 3 W, to a stone in the fighty sion fence near the Jown Syring; thence with the dividion between B.M. Vincent and sen Johnson where the Barb Wir fance is fastened; thence still in a Southern direction with the new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet Gum saying at the County road; thence with County Road of Sweet Gum shing a set on the Barb Wir fance is fastened; thence still in a Southern direction with the new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet Gum saying at the County road; thence with County Road of Sweet Gum saying at the County road; thence of the Barb Wir fance is fastened; thence still in a Southern direction with the new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet Gum saying at the County road; thence withe County Road of Sweet Gum saying at the County road; thence withe County Road of Sweet Gum saying at the County road; thence withe County Road of Sweet Gum saying at the County road; thence withe County Road of Sweet Gum saying at the County road; thence wither County Road of Sweet Gum saying at the County road; thence wither County Road of Sweet Gum saying at the County road; thence wither County Road of Sweet Gum saying at the County road; thence wither County Road of Sweet Gum saying at the County road; then		•	of Brownsville
witnesseth, that the parties of the first part for and in consideration of the sum of Of One Dollar ($1.00) and the family ties, kinship and the love and affection existing between the parties, Joyce Johnson being a niece of first parties, being the daughter of Paul Vincent a brother of B.M. Vincent, This deed was prepared by B.M. Vincent, Aug. 21, 1967. Attorney. J. J. Lincent. Attorney. J. J. Lincent. Attorney. J. J. Lincent. This being a portion of the John Stice lands and lying on Beaverdam Creek, and bounded as follows: Beginning on a stone on the County Road, near the cattle loading pen, with a hickory marked as corner; thence N 3 W, to a stone in the fighty sion fence near the Jewel Such eresk to a stone in the fighty sion fence near the Jewel Spring; thence with the dividion between B.M. Vincent and Ben Johnson where the Barb Wirfence is fastened; thence with County Road a Southern direction with the new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet Gun Saling at the County road; thence with County Road as Southern direction with the new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet fun we barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet fun new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet fun new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet fun new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet fun new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet fun new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet fun new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet fun new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet fun new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet fun new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet fun new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet fun new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet fun new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet fun new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet fun new barb wire			01 20 00000
of One Dollar(51.00) and the family ties, kinship and the love and affection existing between the parties, Joyce Johnson being a niece of first parties, being the daughter of Paul Vincent a brother of B.M. Vincent, This deed was prepared by B.M. Vincent, Aug. 21, 1967. Attorney. J. J. J. J. J. J. J. J. J. Attorney. J.	ounty of		and State aforesaid, of the second part:
and affection existing between the parties, Joyce Johnson being a niece of first parties, being the daughter of Paul Vincent a brother of B.M. Vincent, This deed was prepared by B.M. Vincent, Aug. 21, 1967. Attorney, J.J. Joyce Attorney, and bargain, sell and convey unto 1es and part of the second part, a certain tract or parcel of land, lying in Edmonson County, Kentucky, and described as follows: This being a portion of the John Stice lands and lying on Beaverdam Creek, and bounded as follows: Beginning on a stone on the County Road, near the cattle loading pen, with a hickory marked as corner; thence N 3 W, to a stone in Doris Johnson's creek bottom on the East Stice of Beaverdam Creek, crossing the creek about 800 feet from the beginning; thence a due West course back across the creek to a stone in the fight siton fence near the Jevel Spring; thence with the dividion between Mebb and Stice a Southern direction to a corner between B.M. Vincent and "en Johnson where the Barb Wirffence is fastened; thence still in a Southern direction with the new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet Gum saping at the County road; thence with Gounty Road southers	WIT	NESSETH, that the parties	of the first part, for and in consideration of the sum of the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, a bargained and sold, and by these presents do bargain, sell and convey unto ies famonson County, Kentucky, and described as follows: This being a portion of the John Stice lands and lying on Beaverdam Creek, and bounded as follows: Beginning on a stone on the County Road, near the cattle loading pen, with a hickory marked as corner; thence N 3 W, to a stone in boris Johnson's creek bottom on the East side of Beaverdam Creek, crossing the creek about 800 feet from the beginning; thence a due West course back across the creek to a stone in the fally sion fence near the Jewel Spring; thence with the dividion, between Webb and Stice a Southern direction with the new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet Gum sapling at the County Road, a county Road a Southern County Road, near the cattle loading pen, with a hickory marked as corner; thence N 3 W, to a stone in the fally sion fence near the Jewel Spring; thence with the dividion, between B.M. Vincent and "en Johnson where the Barb Wir fence is fastened; thence still in a Southern direction with the new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet Gum sapling at the County road; thence withe County Road a Southeas		Of One Dollar($1.00)) and the family ties, kinship and the love
the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, a bargained and sold, and by these presents do bargain, sell and convey unto 1es of the second part, a certain tract or parcel of land, lying in Edmonson County, Kentucky, and described as follows: This being a portion of the John Stice lands and lying on Beginning on a stone on the County Road, near the cattle loading pen, with a hickory marked as corner; thence N 3 W, to a stone in poris Johnson's creek bottom on the East side of Beaverdam Creek, crossing the creek about 800 feet from the beginning; thence a due West course back across the creek to a stone in the fally sion fence near the Jewel Spring; thence with the dividion, between B.M. Vincent and 'en Johnson where the Barb Wir- fence is fastened; thence still in a Southern direction with the new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet Gum sapling at the County read; thence withe County Road a Southers		a niece of first pa	rties, being the daughter of Paul Vincent
the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, bargained and sold, and by these presents do bargain, sell and convey unto ies of the second part, a certain tract or parcel of land, lying in Edmonson County, Kentucky, and described as follows: This being a portion of the John Stice lands and lying on Beaverdam Creek, and bounded as follows: Beginning on a stone on the County Road, near the cattle loading pen, with a hickory marked as corner; thence N 3 W, to a stone in Doris Johnson's creek bottom on the East side of Beaverdam Creek, crossing the creek about 800 feet from the beginning; thence a due West course back across the creek to a stone in the follytision fence near the Jewel Spring; thence with the dividion between Webb and Stice a Southern direction to a corner between B.M. Vincent and Sen Johnson where the Barb Wir- fence is fastened; thence still in a Southern direction with the new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet Gum sapling at the County road; thence withe County Road a Southeas		a brother of B.M. V	incent, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, bargained and sold, and by these presents do bargain, sell and convey unto ies of the second part, a certain tract or parcel of land, lying in Edmonson County, Kentucky, and described as follows: This being a portion of the John Stice lands and lying on Beaverdam Creek, and bounded as follows: Beginning on a stone on the County Road, near the cattle loading pen, with a hickory marked as corner; thence N 3 W, to a stone in Doris Johnson's creek bottom on the East side of Beaverdam Creek, crossing the creek about 800 feet from the beginning; thence a due West course back across the creek to a stone in the follytision fence near the Jewel Spring; thence with the dividion between Webb and Stice a Southern direction to a corner between B.M. Vincent and Sen Johnson where the Barb Wir- fence is fastened; thence still in a Southern direction with the new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet Gum sapling at the County road; thence withe County Road a Southeas
the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, bargained and sold, and by these presents do bargain, sell and convey unto ies of the second part, a certain tract or parcel of land, lying in Edmonson County, Kentucky, and described as follows: This being a portion of the John Stice lands and lying on Beaverdam Creek, and bounded as follows: Beginning on a stone on the County Road, near the cattle loading pen, with a hickory marked as corner; thence N 3 W, to a stone in Doris Johnson's creek bottom on the East side of Beaverdam Creek, crossing the creek about 800 feet from the beginning; thence a due West course back across the creek to a stone in the follytision fence near the Jewel Spring; thence with the dividion between Webb and Stice a Southern direction to a corner between B.M. Vincent and Sen Johnson where the Barb Wir- fence is fastened; thence still in a Southern direction with the new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet Gum sapling at the County road; thence withe County Road a Southeas
the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, bargained and sold, and by these presents do bargain, sell and convey unto ies of the second part, a certain tract or parcel of land, lying in Edmonson County, Kentucky, and described as follows: This being a portion of the John Stice lands and lying on Beaverdam Creek, and bounded as follows: Beginning on a stone on the County Road, near the cattle loading pen, with a hickory marked as corner; thence N 3 W, to a stone in Doris Johnson's creek bottom on the East side of Beaverdam Creek, crossing the creek about 800 feet from the beginning; thence a due West course back across the creek to a stone in the follytision fence near the Jewel Spring; thence with the dividion between Webb and Stice a Southern direction to a corner between B.M. Vincent and Sen Johnson where the Barb Wir- fence is fastened; thence still in a Southern direction with the new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet Gum sapling at the County road; thence withe County Road a Southeas
the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, bargained and sold, and by these presents do bargain, sell and convey unto ies of the second part, a certain tract or parcel of land, lying in Edmonson County, Kentucky, and described as follows: This being a portion of the John Stice lands and lying on Beaverdam Creek, and bounded as follows: Beginning on a stone on the County Road, near the cattle loading pen, with a hickory marked as corner; thence N 3 W, to a stone in Doris Johnson's creek bottom on the East side of Beaverdam Creek, crossing the creek about 800 feet from the beginning; thence a due West course back across the creek to a stone in the follytision fence near the Jewel Spring; thence with the dividion between Webb and Stice a Southern direction to a corner between B.M. Vincent and Sen Johnson where the Barb Wir- fence is fastened; thence still in a Southern direction with the new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet Gum sapling at the County road; thence withe County Road a Southeas
the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, bargained and sold, and by these presents do bargain, sell and convey unto ies of the second part, a certain tract or parcel of land, lying in Edmonson County, Kentucky, and described as follows: This being a portion of the John Stice lands and lying on Beaverdam Creek, and bounded as follows: Beginning on a stone on the County Road, near the cattle loading pen, with a hickory marked as corner; thence N 3 W, to a stone in Doris Johnson's creek bottom on the East side of Beaverdam Creek, crossing the creek about 800 feet from the beginning; thence a due West course back across the creek to a stone in the follytision fence near the Jewel Spring; thence with the dividion between Webb and Stice a Southern direction to a corner between B.M. Vincent and Sen Johnson where the Barb Wir- fence is fastened; thence still in a Southern direction with the new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet Gum sapling at the County road; thence withe County Road a Southeas
the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, a bargained and sold, and by these presents do bargain, sell and convey unto ies of the second part, a certain tract or parcel of land, lying in Edmonson County, Kentucky, and described as follows: This being a portion of the John Stice lands and lying on Beaverdam Creek, and bounded as follows: Beginning on a stone on the County Road, near the cattle loading pen, with a hickory marked as corner; thence N 3 W, to a stone in Doris Johnson's creek bottom on the East side of Beaverdam Creek, crossing the creek about 800 feet from the beginning; thence a due West course back across the creek to a stone in thergingision fence near the Jewel Spring; thence with the dividion, between Webb and Stice a Southern direction to a corner between B.M. Vincent and ben Johnson where the Barb Wirk fence is fastened; thence still in a Southern direction with the new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet Gum sapling at the County road; thence withe County Road a Southers		This deed was prepa	red by
the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, a bargained and sold, and by these presents do bargain, sell and convey unto ies of the second part, a certain tract or parcel of land, lying in Edmonson County, Kentucky, and described as follows: This being a portion of the John Stice lands and lying on Beaverdam Creek, and bounded as follows: Beginning on a stone on the County Road, near the cattle loading pen, with a hickory marked as corner; thence N 3 W, to a stone in Doris Johnson's creek bottom on the East side of Beaverdam Creek, crossing the creek about 800 feet from the beginning; thence a due West course back across the creek to a stone in thergingision fence near the Jewel Spring; thence with the dividion, between Webb and Stice a Southern direction to a corner between B.M. Vincent and ben Johnson where the Barb Wirk fence is fastened; thence still in a Southern direction with the new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet Gum sapling at the County road; thence withe County Road a Southers		Attorney.	_619 17010
bargained and sold, and by these presents dobargain, sell and convey unto ies le said partof the second part, a certain tract or parcel of land, lying in Edmonson		10.3.di	renh
bargained and sold, and by these presents dobargain, sell and convey unto ies le said partof the second part, a certain tract or parcel of land, lying in Edmonson
bargained and sold, and by these presents dobargain, sell and convey unto ies le said partof the second part, a certain tract or parcel of land, lying in Edmonson
bargained and sold, and by these presents dobargain, sell and convey unto ies le said partof the second part, a certain tract or parcel of land, lying in Edmonson
bargained and sold, and by these presents dobargain, sell and convey unto ies le said partof the second part, a certain tract or parcel of land, lying in Edmonson
bargained and sold, and by these presents dobargain, sell and convey unto ies le said partof the second part, a certain tract or parcel of land, lying in Edmonson
bargained and sold, and by these presents dobargain, sell and convey unto ies le said partof the second part, a certain tract or parcel of land, lying in Edmonson
of the second part, a certain tract or parcel of land, lying in Edmonson County, Kentucky, and described as follows: This being a portion of the John Stice lands and lying on Beaverdam Creek, and bounded as follows: Beginning on a stone on the County Road, near the cattle loading pen, with a hickory marked as corner; thence N 3 W, to a stone in Doris Johnson's creek bottom on the East side of Beaverdam Creek, crossing the creek about 800 feet from the beginning; thence a due West course back across the creek to a stone in the fdivision fence near the Jewel Spring; thence with the dividion, between Webb and Stice a Southern direction to a corner between B.M. Vincent and Ben Johnson where the Barb Wirfence is fastened; thence still in a Southern direction with the new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet Gum sapling at the County road; thence withe County Road a Southeas			the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, County, Kentucky, and described as follows: This being a portion of the John Stice lands and lying on Beaverdam Creek, and bounded as follows: Beginning on a stone on the County Road, near the cattle loading pen, with a hickory marked as corner; thence N 3 W, to a stone in Doris Johnson's creek bottom on the East side of Beaverdam Creek, crossing the creek about 800 feet from the beginning; thence a due West course back across the creek to a stone in the fdivision fence near the Jewel Spring; thence with the dividion between Webb and Stice a Southern direction to a corner between B.M. Vincent and Ben Johnson where the Barb Wirfence is fastened; thence still in a Southern direction with the new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet Gum sapling at the County road; thence withe County Road a Southeas	а		these presents dobargain, sell and convey unto
This being a portion of the John Stice lands and lying on Beaverdam Creek, and bounded as follows: Beginning on a stone on the County Road, near the cattle loading pen, with a hickory marked as corner; thence N 3 W, to a stone in Doris Johnson's creek bottom on the East side of Beaverdam Creek, crossing the creek about 800 feet from the beginning; thence a due West course back across the creek to a stone in the folicient of the course back across the creek to a stone in the folicient of the course back across the creek to a corner between Webb and Stice a Southern direction to a corner between B.M. Vincent and ben Johnson where the Barb Wirfence is fastened; thence still in a Southern direction with the new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet Gum sapling at the County road; thence withe County Road a Southeas	ne said		of the second part, a certain tract or parcel of land, lying in
Beginning on a stone on the County Road, near the cattle loading pen, with a hickory marked as corner; thence N 3 W, to a stone in Doris Johnson's creek bottom on the East side of Beaverdam Creek, crossing the creek about 800 feet from the beginning; thence a due West course back across the creek to a stone in the folice in fence near the Jewel Spring; thence with the dividion between Webb and Stice a Southern direction to a corner between B.M. Vincent and en Johnson where the Barb Wirfence is fastened; thence still in a Southern direction with the new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet Gum sapling at the County road; thence withe County Road a Southeas		Edmonson	County, Kentucky, and described as follows:
Beginning on a stone on the County Road, near the cattle loading pen, with a hickory marked as corner; thence N 3 W, to a stone in Doris Johnson's creek bottom on the East side of Beaverdam Creek, crossing the creek about 800 feet from the beginning; thence a due West course back across the creek to a stone in the folice in fence near the Jewel Spring; thence with the dividion between Webb and Stice a Southern direction to a corner between B.M. Vincent and en Johnson where the Barb Wirfence is fastened; thence still in a Southern direction with the new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet Gum sapling at the County road; thence withe County Road a Southeas		This being a portion	n of the John Stice lands and lying on loading pen, with a hickory marked as corner; thence N 3 W, to a stone in Doris Johnson's creek bottom on the East side of Beaverdam Creek, crossing the creek about 800 feet from the beginning; thence a due West course back across the creek to a stone in the figivision fence near the Jewel Spring; thence with the dividion between Webb and Stice a Southern direction to a corner between B.M. Vincent and ben Johnson where the Barb Wirfence is fastened; thence still in a Southern direction with the new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet Gum sapling at the County road; thence withe County Road a Southeas		Beaverdam Creek, an	d bounded as follows: loading pen, with a hickory marked as corner; thence N 3 W, to a stone in Doris Johnson's creek bottom on the East side of Beaverdam Creek, crossing the creek about 800 feet from the beginning; thence a due West course back across the creek to a stone in the figivision fence near the Jewel Spring; thence with the dividion between Webb and Stice a Southern direction to a corner between B.M. Vincent and ben Johnson where the Barb Wirfence is fastened; thence still in a Southern direction with the new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet Gum sapling at the County road; thence withe County Road a Southeas		Beginning on a s	tone on the County Road, near the cattle Beaverdam Creek, crossing the creek about 800 feet from the beginning; thence a due West course back across the creek to a stone in the figivision fence near the Jewel Spring; thence with the dividion between Webb and Stice a Southern direction to a corner between B.M. Vincent and en Johnson where the Barb Wirfence is fastened; thence still in a Southern direction with the new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet Gum sapling at the County road; thence withe County Road a Southeas		loading pen, with a	hickory marked as corner; thence N 3 W, to beginning; thence a due West course back across the creek to a stone in the filipsic on fence near the Jewel Spring; thence with the dividion between Webb and Stice a Southern direction to a corner between B.M. Vincent and ben Johnson where the Barb Wirfence is fastened; thence still in a Southern direction with the new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet Gum sapling at the County road; thence withe County Road a Southeas the dividion between Webb and Stice a Southern direction to a corner between B.M. Vincent and ben Johnson where the Barb Wirefence is fastened; thence still in a Southern direction with the new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet Gum sapling at the County road; thence withe County Road a Southeas		beginning; thence a	due West course back across the creek to a corner between B.M. Vincent and Den Johnson where the Barb Wire fence is fastened; thence still in a Southern direction with the new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet Gum sapling at the County road; thence with County Road a Southeas		stone in the fdivision the dividion has been	on fence near the Jewel Spring; thence with fence is fastened; thence still in a Southern direction with the new barb wire fence and the lands of Ben Johnson to a Sweet Gum sapling at the County road; thence withe County Road a Southeas		corner between B.M.	Vincent and Pen Johnson where the Barb Wire sapling at the County road; thence withe County Road a Southeas		fence is fastened;	thence still in a Southern direction with the has ever been made.		direction to the beg	ginning, estimated at 80 acres but no survey