

Further Local Contributors:

So many thanks, including Amesbury VFW Post 2016; Amesbury's Bartlett Museum; Bartlett Saw Mill; DGI In Visuals; DS Graphics; Flatbreads; Gould Insurance; Minuteman Press; Powow River Grille; Ristorante Molise; Scandia; The Barking Dog; The 5th MASS Battery; & especially my devoted and patient family, friends, colleagues & pupils for the inspiration and encouragement to "play it again," Capt. Sam.

We really are a Connected Cross-River Regional Community

II Arms in Amesbury Civil War Weekend

Activity Schedule

Raise the Arm!

Woodsom Farm - Amesbury, MA

June 2nd & 3rd, 2007

Sat. 9-4 & Sun. 9-2

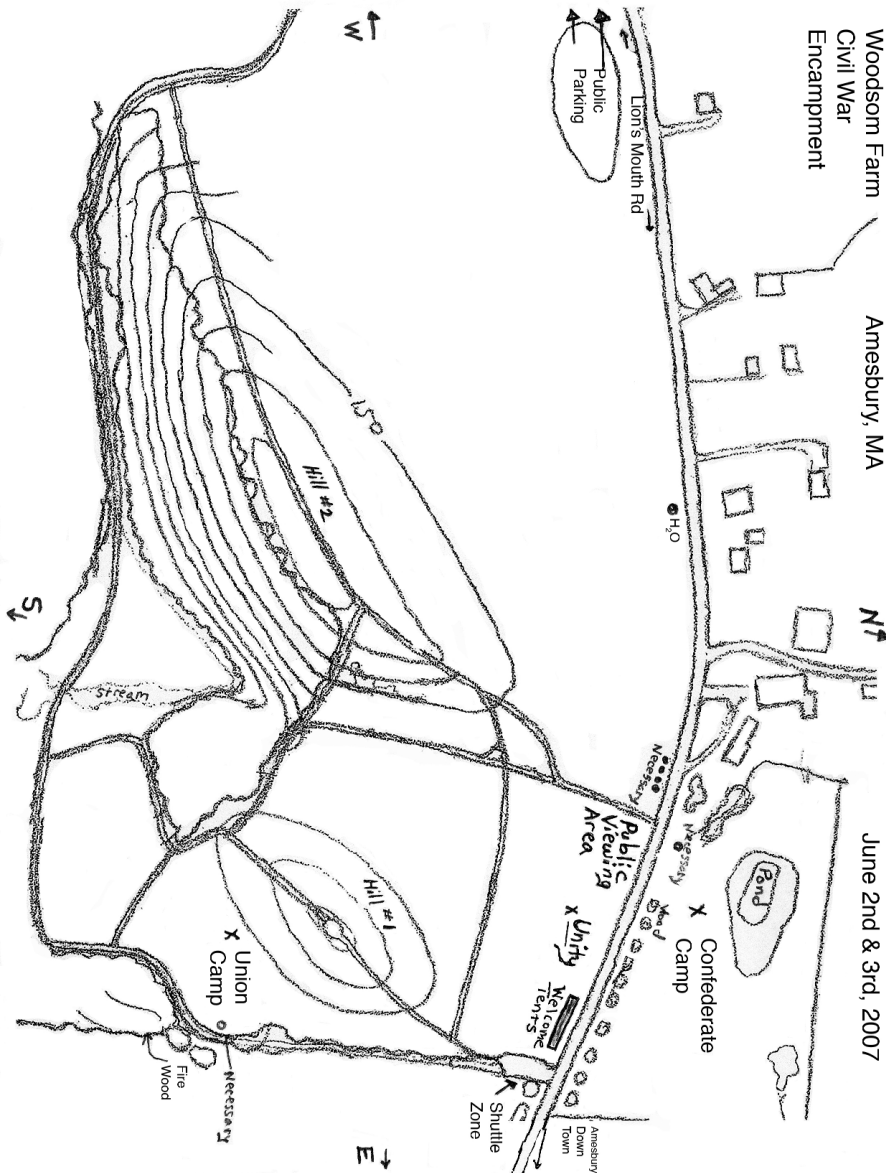

Sponsored by

The Newburyport Bank

The Provident Bank

SPS New England

This event is dedicated to all those who have served or are currently serving our nation in many capacities. Proceeds go to the restoration of the vandalized 11th MASS monument at Gettysburg National Battlefield. We Honor and Remember. "ALL'S WELL THAT ENDS WELL."- Quote from 11th MASS monument

Saturday - June 2nd

9 AM - Official Opening “Welcome to Amesbury's Two Arms”

10 AM - Battalion Drill - Demonstrations / Presentations

NOON - Chow Time - Poetry, Prose & Music

2 PM - Battle Re-enactment: New England Brigade & Liberty Greys

3 PM - Military Drill & Camp Life Presentations

4 PM - Camps Close to Public

Welcoming Tents - Registration, Information, & Concessions

{Sat. & Sun. - Public Shuttle from Parking Zone to Event Start & Back}

Visit Unity & experience life in a war-time border town.

Featured Presenters & Impressionists:

Updated Listings & Large Event Map - at Information Table

Generals Ulysses S. Grant & Robert E. Lee - Sat. & Sun.

The Square-Riggers Band - Sat. / Drum & Bugle Calls - Sun.

Special Discussions: (By Appointment)

Civil War Sketch Artist - Paul Dion

The Battle of Hatcher's Run - Richard Nichols

Colonel J. E. Farnum & Wife - Ed & Mary Kelley

[Sat. Re-enactor Shuttles will run Downtown & to Amesbury Sites of Interest- per unit command. By Appointment - See Lead Wagoneer]

"Determine that a thing can and shall be done, and then we shall find the way." - A. Lincoln

Sunday - June 3rd

8 AM - Union Cemetery Monument Ceremony (Optional)

9 AM - Church Call (Religious Services) - Open to Public

10 AM - Dress Parade - Drill & Demonstrations / Presentations

11 AM - Chow Time - Bugle & Drum Calls

1 PM - Battle Re-enactment: New England Brigade & Liberty Greys

2 PM - Event Closing - Break Camps - Clean-Up & Clear Out

Local Sites of 19th Century Interest:

Amesbury's Bartlett Museum - Exhibit: “Amesbury At War - A Tradition of Service & Sacrifice” - (Hatcher's Run Diorama)

Amesbury's Carriage Museum, Hat Museum & Salisbury Point Railroad Historical Society: Outstanding inventories

Cushing House Museum: Newburyport home of Caleb Cushing & The Ould Newbury Historical Society; amazing collections

Currier Home: Amesbury's Lion's Mouth Rd. home of famed Currier & Ives illustrator Nathaniel Currier - Privately Owned

John Greenleaf Whittier Home: Step back into Whittier's 19th Century. (Upon this, the 200th celebration of his birth)

Lowell's Boat Shop: Oldest operating boat shop in America

Newburyport Custom House Maritime Museum - Exhibit: “Civil War Ship Models”; public shuttles per appointment

William Lloyd Garrison Home - Newburyport, Private Home

"It is History that teaches us to hope." - R.E. Lee